

PITCH S1:E4

Ginny knocks on the door. Her mom Janet lets her in as Ginny storms in upset.

Ginny

Where were you?

You go through the troubles to ask for tickets and you don't even show.

Janet

I was taking Kevin to the airport. He didn't feel comfortable being there and I didn't exactly feel welcomed either.

Ginny

you're unbelievable. It's always about you. You couldn't put your ego aside for one start. And the All-star game?

Janet

There's always another start and another and another since you were 12 years old. When does it ever been about me?

Ginny

Yu never liked baseball. You always tied it to pop's death.

Janet

Baseball didn't kill your father. A drunk driver killed your father. Baseball killed my marriage and took my daughter away from me.

Ginny

That's not true

Janet

Isn't it?

Ginny

No

Janet

I just don't understand. We use to be so close. Now I can't even get 3 hours with you. Losing your father was incredibly painful. But it happened a long time before he died. Losing you... Most painful thing that ever happened to me. Why did you shut me out? I never made you chose. why? / Why?

Ginny

Because I was young. I didn't realize how hard it was for you.

Janet

So where does that leaves us

Ginny

I don't know. I really don't. Maybe we can get breakfast tomorrow before you leave.

Janet

ok
